Mutual Savings Bank Announces New Branch Opening in Greenwood

Greenwood, Indiana (March 21, 2019) --- Mutual Savings Bank, a growing community bank with more than 125 years of history in Johnson County, has announced the addition of a new bank branch. The new bank branch will be located at 2020 South State Road 135 in Greenwood, Indiana. The branch is anticipated to open in mid-April, 2019.

“Mutual Savings Bank is Johnson County’s only locally based community bank and we are excited about our new Greenwood location. This expansion will allow for more convenience for existing customers and provide the people of Greenwood with true community banking. We have local people making local decisions for our customers.” stated David A. Coffey, President and CEO. Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer Chad Riddle added, “We have the personal and business products that can make banking easy. Our message to those in the Greenwood area is simple...Let’s Bank Together!”

The addition of this new branch will allow Mutual Savings Bank to better serve the community of Johnson County. The Greenwood branch will give current customers another convenient location with which to bank. This expansion also offers the community in other parts of the county to have a local, reliable banking option close to home.

The new Greenwood location is a full service branch, offering mortgages, commercial loans, checking and savings accounts, and much more.
